SUMMER READING For Students Entering Grade 7

"I have always imagined that Paradise will be some kind of library." -Jorge Luis Borges

What is REQUIRED:

- Read one of the assigned titles below and take notes while you read. The focus topic/theme for your notes is adaptation.
- Bring your book and notes with you on the first day of school.
- In September, you will be asked to show off your writing skills through a writing assignment designed with your assigned book in mind. You will be able to use your notes to help you.

7th Grade Required Reading Choices

Call of the Wild
– Jack London

or

Brian's Winter
-Gary Paulsen

All students are required to have the text for reference.

What is OPTIONAL:

- You may read a second or third book in the series. This may help in your understanding of the plot and characters and enhance your connections throughout the year.
- A list of Guided Reading Questions is another option for each required text. These questions serve to guide your understanding of your reading. Briefly answering them can only help you.

7th Grade Optional Additional Reading Choices

White Fang
– Jack London

or

The River or Brian's Return
-Gary Paulsen

Guided Reading Questions and a focus for note taking can be found on the UMS website under Site Shortcuts - Summer Reading.
