

McMullan, Kate

Pearl and Wagner: One Funny Day

In this delightful early chapter book, Pearl and Wagner return in three episodes that take place on April Fool's Day. This has everything an easy reader should: humor, believability, and identifiable characters.

Ronsenthal, Amy Krouse

Duck! Rabbit!

There's an adorable duck in this book. No there isn't. It's a cute little rabbit. What? Just look at the cover! That's a duck! No, it's a rabbit! Duck! Rabbit!

Rylant, Cynthia

Mr. Putter and Tabby Run the Race

Mrs. Teaberry has persuaded Mr. Putter to sign up for the seniors' marathon. First prize is a set of golf clubs, but second prize is . . . a train set! Mr. Putter really wants that train set. Never mind that he can't even touch his toes. Somehow, he has got to find a way to place second . . .

Silverman, Erica

Cowgirl Kate and Cocoa: Rain or Shine

This is the endearing story of a winning friendship between a girl and her horse. The friends share some fun (and not-so-fun) rainy day adventures in this, the fourth Cowgirl Kate and Cocoa book.

Thomas, Jan

Can You Make a Scary Face?

What kind of face would you make if a tickly green bug were sitting on your nose? This interactive picture book starring a bossy little ladybug and a giant hungry frog will have kids dancing and making silly faces of their own.

Thomas, Jan

Here Comes the Big Mean Dust Bunny

In this sequel to last year's big hit, Rhyming Dust Bunnies, Ed, Ned, Ted and Bob are back. This time they are back to play the rhyming game with a big, mean, dust bully. No worries, the story still ends happily, and the children will be excited to see their old friends.

Wheeler, Lisa

DinoSoccer

The Grazers take on the Biters in this action-packed sports extravaganza. Each exciting play is recounted in rhyming verse with the names of the dinosaurs printed in the appropriate team color to indicate whether they are herbivore or carnivore. Sports fans and dino-lovers will love this sequel to DinoHockey.

Willems, Mo

Let's Say Hi to Friends Who Fly

In the newest series of easy readers by Mo Willems, we meet Cat the Cat and her flying friends. Once again, Willems walks right into kids' daily lives with this exuberant, clean-lined animation that's sure to add more youngsters to his fan club.

Willems, Mo

Pigs Make Me Sneeze

Can it be? Has elephant developed an allergy to pigs? But his best friend is a pig! What's an elephant to do? When Doctor Cat informs Gerald that he has a cold (not an allergy), he is elated. He rushes to tell his friend Piggie the good news, only to find that Piggie now shares his friend's illness.

Warren Township Schools

Summer Reading Lists

Grades K-1

2010

Summer is here with lots of time for you to read. Here is a list of our favorite books for many enjoyable hours of entertainment. Research tells us that the more you read, the better you read. Reading achievement is directly related to the amount of reading you do in school and at home. So use this list, find yourself a comfortable spot, and have a great summer!

Summer Reading Lists

Prepared by:

Warren Township

Library Media Specialists

Nancy Darby-Woodland School

Diane Burak-Middle School

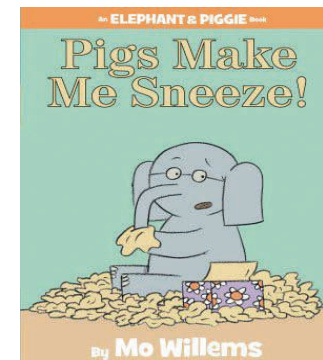

Janice O'Connor-Mt. Horeb School

Susan Jackson-A.L. Tomaso School

Mary DeNunzio-Central School

Warren Public Library

Antonette K. D'Orazio

Arnold, Tedd

Fly Guy Meets Fly Girl

Fly Guy meets the fly of his dreams, Fly Girl. They play together, and buzz together. Fly Guy is totally smitten. Will Fly Guy and Fly Girl get married and leave Buzz without his dear friend? The latest addition to the Fly Guy series does not disappoint.

Broach, Elise

When Dinosaurs Came with Everything

While doing errands with his mother, a little boy discovers the most remarkable thing. On this day, and on this day only, stores everywhere are giving away a stupendous treat with any purchase. It's a dream come true, except . . . what exactly do you do with these Jurassic prizes?

Calmenson, Stephanie

May I Pet Your Dog?

This is a how-to guide for kids meeting dogs (and dogs meeting kids). With straightforward guidelines, this book offers an encouraging introduction to meeting four legged friends.

Carolyn Crimi

Henry and the Buccaneer Bunnies

Henry is not your typical buccaneer bunny. Instead of performing proper pirating duties, he would rather read books. His father, the captain, is not proud of his son, and the rest of the crew make fun of him. When they are shipwrecked on an island, however, it is booksmart Henry that saves the day.

DiCamillo, Kate

Mercy Watson Thinks Like a Pig

In her sixth adventure, Mercy Watson is on her way to the drive-in movies to see When Pigs Fly. Mr. and Mrs. Watson are sure she'll find it inspirational, but Mercy is more excited by the prospect of real butter on a bottomless bucket of popcorn. The adventure begins when she follows the irresistible scent of butter to waiting cars with windows down.

Florian, Douglas

Dinothesaurus

Composed of irresistible word play and beautiful collage illustrations, children will be mesmerized by these prehistoric poems. The gorgeous art and humorous text will encourage paleontologists and poets to peruse these pages again and again.

Grey, Mini

Traction Man

This imaginative and very funny romp through the fantasy play of a young boy features his newly acquired action figure. Traction Man overcomes evil pillows, dastardly brooms, and a poisonous dishcloth in a never-ending battle between good and evil.

Heide, Florence Parry

Princess Hyacinth: The Surprising Tale of a Girl Who Floated

Princess Hyacinth has a problem: she floats! So the king and queen have pebbles sewn into her socks and force her to wear a crown encrusted by the heaviest jewels in the kingdom to keep her on the ground. But Princess Hyacinth longs to float free. Can the king and queen keep her down?

Hoberman, Mary Ann

You Read to Me, I'll Read to You: Very Short Fairy Tales to Read Together

This book offers 14 short tales. Each story is designed to be read by two voices that, at times, come together for shared rhymes. Color coded text in two columns makes it easy to distinguish the parts.

Jenkins, Steve

Never Smile at a Monkey

In this dynamic and fascinating picture book, Steve Jenkins explains the unusual ways some creatures have developed to protect themselves or to catch prey, ways that can make these animals unexpectedly hazardous to your health.

Knudsen, Michelle

Library Lion

Miss Meriwether is a librarian who loves her rules. A lion visits the library for story time, and since there is no rule about lions in the library, Miss Meriwether decides to let him in. Everyone is happy with this decision . . . well, almost everyone. . .

Kulka, Joe

Wolf's Coming!

You'll howl with delight! From cover to cover, "Wolf's Coming!" is filled with fun, colorful characters, and a story that builds with suspense with each turn of the page. This is the perfect scary book for young children, who will beg to read it again and again.

McCarthy, Meghan

The Story of Charles Atlas, Strong Man

This is a biographical account of the world's first 98 pound weakling who transformed himself into "The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man."